AFTERDISASTER® AWARDED GSA EMERGENCY SERVICES CONTRACT IN NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY, PUERTO RICO, AND THE US VIRGIN ISLANDS

Greensboro, N.C. – The General Services Administration (GSA) has awarded a five-year Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA) to AFTERDISASTER to service all federal/GSA buildings in New York, New Jersey, Puerto Rico and the US Virgin Islands.

AFTERDISASTER is a woman-owned small business and a state certified Historically Underutilized Business (HUB). They specialize in the provision of emergency and restoration services for water, fire, smoke and mold/biological victims in governmental, commercial and institutional buildings. The company provides catastrophic and large loss emergency services, remediation, and temporary power/climate/environmental controls to clients throughout the United States and the Caribbean. In addition to this new award, AFTERDISASTER holds BPAs for emergency and remediation services in GSA's Region 1 (Northeastern US), at Langley-Eustis Joint Military Base, and at many public institutions and private companies.

Federal contracts are awarded by GSA only after careful review and confirmation of competitive and fair pricing, resources and capabilities, project management skills, past performance ratings, and completion of projects of various sizes and scopes of work for the government and private sectors.

AFTERDISASTER President DeeAnna Burton said, "We are extremely excited to continue providing the highest level of service to the General Services Administration. Being awarded this most recent BPA is the result of nine years of providing consistent, stellar service to our GSA and governmental clients by our National Services Division and administrative staff. We look forward to continuing to serve the needs of the federal government and the General Services Administration throughout the US."
